

A Lily Lilies

Poet Josey Foo and dancer/choreographer Leah Stein will read/dance from their collaborative book, published in 2011. Poems by Josey Foo. Notes on dance by Leah Stein.

A LILY LILIES

MONDAY

October 3, 2011

7:30PM

Scheuer Room, Kohlberg Hall
Sponsored by the Programs in
Dance and Creative Writing
Swarthmore College

Josey Foo is the writer of Endou and Tomie's Chair and a 2001 NEA Lit Fellowship recipient. A former undocumented alien working in carpentry, service and retail, she has a Vassar BA, Brown MFA (Writing), and UPenn JD. Josey Foo has worked for the Navajo Nation in Arizona and New Mexico for 11 years.

Poems and photographs by

JOSEY FOO

Notes on dance and photographs by

LEAH STEIN

Leah Stein is the award-winning artistic director of the Leah Stein Dance Company in Philadelphia, staging dances in train garages, open fields, parking lots and other sites internationally. She has a Wesleyan BA and teaches at Bryn Mawr and Swarthmore Colleges.